University of Nebraska–Lincoln

Policy and Procedures for Transfer of Personal Property to Another Institution

Personal property includes all materials, supplies, furniture, equipment, printing, stationery, automotive and road equipment and all other chattels, goods, wares and merchandise whatsoever, regardless of cost. Title and ownership to all property purchased with the University’s state aided budget funds shall remain vested in the University until the transfer of such property to another institution is approved by the Vice Chancellor for Business and Finance. Property purchased with specially donated or restricted funds providing for other ownership may be transferred pursuant to the following policy, as well. University property may only be transferred if determined to be in the best interest of the University.

UNL personal property may only be transferred to another institution by completing the following steps:

1. Prepare a formal written request for the transfer of the personal property from UNL to the intended receiving institution. The request must contain the following:
   a. Reason for transfer (include whether or not equipment could be used by other UNL personnel in department or college)
   b. Item description (include make and model)
   c. Date of purchase
   d. Serial number (if available)
   e. UNL Inventory Tag Number (if available)
   f. Source of funding for original purchase (include cost object)
   g. Current location of property
   h. Name and address of institution to receive transfer
   i. Dollar amount to be paid by receiving institution for transferred property, whether by outright sale or rental charge
   j. Signature of requestor

2. Signature approval section must be completed prior to the proposed transfer from the following:
   a. Department Chair
   b. Dean
   c. Vice Chancellor for Research
   d. Vice Chancellor for Business and Finance

3. The original completed document must then be forwarded to the Inventory Department for removal of the item(s) from University records.

4. If required by receiving institution, the Inventory Department will prepare a formal invoice.

5. Checks are to be made payable to the University of Nebraska–Lincoln and sent to the Inventory Department.

Request for Transfer form included below.

For multiple items, see Request for Transfer Multiple Items form, if the reason for transfer is the same.

If there are questions involving this policy, please contact the University of Nebraska–Lincoln Inventory Department at (402) 472-2085.

Revised 9/1/2008
Request for Transfer of
University of Nebraska–Lincoln
Personal Property to Another Institution

Date: ________________

Requestor: ________________________________ Department: ________________________________

Reason for Transfer: ________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

Item Description, Make & Model#, Date of Purchase, Original Cost: ______________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

Serial Number: ______________________________ UNL Inventory Tag Number: ________________

Funding Source and Cost Object for Original Purchase: ________________________________

Present Location of Property: __________________________________________________________

Name & Address of Institution to Receive Transfer: __________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

Dollar Amount Payable to UNL for Property by Receiving Institution $ ________________

(Signature of Requestor) __________________________ (Date) __________________________

Approval Signatures

(Department Chair) __________________________ (Date) __________________________

(Dean) __________________________ (Date) __________________________

(Vice Chancellor for Research) __________________________ (Date) __________________________

(Vice Chancellor for Business & Finance) __________________________ (Date) __________________________

Return original completed form to the University of Nebraska–Lincoln, Inventory Department